Fryday, April 30. 1703.

From the Hague Gazette, dated April 30.

Adrianople, March 10.

THE Troubles of Tartary being pretty well allay'd by the reinſtating of the Old Cham in his former Dignity, in the room of his eldeſt Son, who is fled away with 400 Men; ſeveral Baſhaws that were order'd to draw their Troops this way are countermanded, and the Levies that were begun throughout the Empire are diſcontinued. The Grand Signior has ſent to the Old Cham of Tartary, and to the Seraſquier, to each a Scimitaz for a preſent, in token of his Satisfaction with their Conduct in quiting the Commotions in Tartary. One of the Cham's Sons, named Galga, is come over to his Father's Party, and has joyn'd him with the Militia of Budziack; ſince which both of them are gone with the Seraſquier and his Army towards Crim Tartary, in order to make a thorough Settlement of the preſent Government. Mean time, 2 other Sons of the Cham who are retir'd among the Circuſſian Tartars, are roving about that Country at the Head of a few Troops. 'Tis reported that the Grand Vizier who was ſtrangled ſome time ago, and who was brib'd by France to break the Truce with the Emperor, had laid a Contrivance, the better to compaſs his ends, to poiſon the Mufti and the Reis Effendi the preſent Grand Vizier; but his Secretary, being ſhock'd at ſo villanous a Deſign, diſcover'd it to the Mufti, who acquainted the Grand Signior with it; Upon which follow'd the Death of that Vizier, and the Promotion of the Reis Effendi to his Place.

Rome, April 7. Cardinal Grimani having ſent Orders for taking down all the Furniture of his Palace, and for ſelling his Horſes, 'tis preſum'd he will not return to this City. A Native of the Town of Urbino, who had been taken by Pirates and carried into Turkey, where he was kept a Slave for 5 Years; having learn'd that Cardinal Albani, (who is of the ſame City,) was Elected Pope, it came into his Head to take the Name of Albani upon him, and pretend to be of kin to His Holyneſs; Under colour of which he prevail'd with ſome Venetians who reſided on the Place where he was in Slavery, to belive him, and for the Pope's ſake to ranſom him; they put him on Board a Veſſel that carried him to Palermo, whence the Vice-Roy of Sicily ſent him to Civita Vecchia, where he was found to be an Impoſtor, for the Pope being made acquainted with the matter, declar'd that he had no ſuch Kinſman.

From the Paris Gazette dated April 28.

Venice, April 7th. Our Advices from Lombardy, tell us, that the Forces of the Allies are diligently imploy'd on the Fortifications of San Benedetto; that the Monaſtry is already environ'd with good Retrenchments, and a deep Ditch; and at Borgo Martino they have made 2 large Redoubts and other Works, with Ditches. Moſt of their Recruits are arriv'd, and are diſpos'd into thoſe Regiments for which they were rais'd: The Camps they have form'd on the Secchia, and between Governolo and Oſtiglia, are daily augmented with more Troops. The Imperialiſts on their ſide are at work on the Forts and other Retrenchments which they have made on the ſide of the Secchia, to defend the Paſſage of that River. They have not abandon'd Final as was reported; have poſted two Companies again in San Felice; and have receiv'd 1000 or 1200 Recruits. The Ambaſſador of Spain to this Republick is very much indiſpos'd, and by reaſon of his great Age 'tis fear'd he will not recover. The Captains are not yet nominated that are to command the Men of War which are brought out of the Arcenal, and which will not be entirely equipt for War till we are aſſur'd whether the Engliſh and Dutch Fleet will come into theſe Seas.

From the Hague Gazette, dated April 30.

Venice, April 10. We have Advice that the Duke of Mantua is return'd to his Capital City, convoy'd by 3000 Horſe; that the Duke of Vandome is expected at San Benedetto; and that 'tis thought Oſtiglia and Mirandola will not be attack'd before the Allies have had a Field-Engagement with the Imperialiſts. The ſame Letters acquaint us, that the latter are ſtrongly intrench'd along the Secchia; that they have Corn and Forrage for 3 Months; that they have receiv'd a conſiderable Sum of Money from Vienna; and are in daily Expectation of great Reinforcements. It was talk'd with great Aſſurance, that the King of Spain in his late Prohibition to his Subjects of the Mediterranean not to furniſh any Foreigners with Corn, had excepted the French and Genoueſe; but from Genoua they write, that the French only are excepted, to the great Diſſatisfaction of the Genoueſe. They write from Leghorn, that the Zealand Capers, who have for ſome time cruiz'd in the Mediterranean and taken ſeveral French Prizes, have diſmis'd part of their Crew, and are about to return home as Merchant Ships.

From the Paris Gazette, dated April 28.

They write from Breſt, that the Martiale has brought into that Port an Engliſh Ship of 150 Tuns laden with Wine from Portugal. And from Port Louis of the 18th, that the Sieur de Vienne de Buſſeroles and the Chevalier de Neſmond commanding the Frigats Hercules and Aurora had given chaſe to 3 Fluſhing Capers, of which they took one carrying 18 Guns and 150 Men, and has brought her into that Harbour. Letters from Toulon adviſe, that the Chevalier Philipeaux came in there on the 15th with two Prizes, one Engliſh one Dutch, richly laden.
